In the 1950’s
Wartime Capital During the Korean War

In 2017
The 2\textsuperscript{nd} Largest City in Korea (Population: 3.5m)

Today’s Busan

- Global Center of Key Industries

[Shipbuilding] - 6 Shipbuilding businesses
- 50% of domestic products
[Ship Parts] - Over 600 manufacturers
- 90% of domestic products
[Automobiles] - 45% of total domestic products
[Machinery] - 40% of total domestic products
Busan, Together with CityNet

Contributions to CityNet

- Expanding Busan’s Contribution to International Communities
  - Making meaningful contributions in the international community by engaging in diplomacy with Busan’s Sister Cities (36 cities in the world)
  - Dispatching the Busan Overseas Volunteer Team
    (Phnom Penh, Cambodia: 50 volunteers in Aug. 2016 (11 days), Cebu, Philippines: 27 volunteers in Aug. 2016 (7 days))
  - Sharing Busan’s Urban Regeneration and Environmental Policies
    (Gamcheon Culture Village: 2012 UN-HABITAT Asian Townscape Award, 1.85m annual visitors from home and abroad)

Improving Human Living Environments in Member Cities

<Busan Overseas Volunteer Team>  <Gamcheon Culture Village>
Busan, Together with CityNet

• Host of CityNet Meetings and Training Programs
  - Utilizing Busan’s outstanding convention facilities: BEXCO, Nurimaru APEC House (10th in terms of the number of international conferences hosted in the city - 181 in total)
  - Inviting member cities to a variety of educational and training programs
    • KOICA KOREA-ASEAN Special Training Program (Capacity Building on Seafood Processing and Distribution: 23 attendees from 9 nations, Oct. 16, 2016 ~ Nov. 4, 2016)
    • Training Program for ODA Officials
      (7 cities: Ho Chi Minh, Phnom Penh, Yangon, Ulaanbaatar, Surabaya, Cebu, and Vientiane)

<Exhibition Facility : BEXCO>  <Inviting ODA Officials for Training>

Sharing Successful City Operation Cases and Policies